About the technical committee

Emergency Film Group programs are created with the assistance of leaders in emergency response training as well as in the subject field. The following technical committee members assisted in the creation of our Terrorism Response programs:

- Don Abbott, principal, Emergency Response Training
- Chief Tom Abbott, Tempe, AZ FD

About Terrorism

Recent incidents, including the attack on New York and the Pentagon as well as anthrax-laced letters have left people in all cities and towns painfully aware that terrorists can strike anywhere, any time. Although federal agencies stand ready to respond to a terrorist incident, the fact is that the first response almost always falls on the shoulders of local emergency responders. As with any major incident, the first critical decisions are made by local law enforcement officers, fire departments, EMS and emergency management personnel.

Clearly, emergency responders must train to learn how to prepare for terrorism in order to minimize property damage, injuries, and loss of life, and to bring perpetrators to justice.

About the program

"Roll Call Edition" features eight short - less than 10 minute - training segments derived from ABC, NBC, CNN, Inside Edition and many local television stations. Each segment of Roll Call Edition examines a timely topic related to security or terrorism response. The format is designed for law enforcement, security agencies, and others who have a limited amount of time for training presentations, and is ideal for regularly scheduled roll call meetings. The program is available in both DVD and VHS.

Segments include:

- "Terrorist Weapons"
- "Preparing for a Terrorist Attack"
- "Hardening the Site"
- "Incident Command System"
- "Types of Chemical Weapons"
- "Types of Biological Weapons"
- Types of Radiological Weapons
